MIKUMI NATIONAL PARK

On your arrival in Mikumi National Park, a guide from Vuma Hills Tented Camp will be at the airstrip waiting to greet you and take you on a game drive through the park. Your game drive will eventually finish at Vuma Hills Tented Camp, and your guide will help you check-in and allow you to settle in.

You can spend your time at camp with a cold drink overlooking the panoramic views, or relaxing beside the swimming pool.

In the afternoon you will get to go out and explore the national park with a game drive. Your exciting exploration will end back at camp at dusk, in time to freshen up before drinks around the campfire.

Mikumi National Park nestles between the Uluguru Mountains, the Mikumi Hills and protected land. The result is a plains area with a beautiful orangey light, perfect for photography. The park has a significant variety of wildlife to view, from the lion, leopard and hunting dog to herds of antelope, from the largest Eland down to the smallest DikDik. The landscape is a mix of Miombo woodland, arid bushland, coastal landscape all with the mountains forming a scenic backdrop.

During your time staying at Vuma Hills, you choose between half-day shared game drives or full-day experiences in Mikumi National Park, with picnic lunch enabling you to explore further afield in this enormous wilderness.
